

Charity knitting at Hengist Field Care Home

Our wonderful kind hearted resident, Marion Jones, at Hengist Field Care Home is keeping herself busy knitting brightly coloured squares for children in Ethiopia.

These lovely squares go towards making blankets for those that need them.

Marion told us that she is using as many different colours as possible but she will not be using black or white as they are thought of as unlucky in Ethiopia.

Well done Marion!