

Christmas cookies at Hengist Field Care Home

Our residents enjoyed a lovely afternoon in our activities room here at Hengist Field Care Home yesterday.

With carols playing in the background, we decorated some yummy Christmas cookie angels, trees, bells and gingerbread men.

We had a selection of coloured icings, decorations and sprinkles. Our ladies and gents had a good chat and a laugh, and of course singing along to the Christmas carols!

