

Enjoying the sun with ice cream and lollies at Hengist Field Care Home

On Monday 31 May we took advantage of the wonderful bank holiday weather at Hengist Field Care Home and took our residents outside into our pretty courtyard garden to enjoy a variety of ice creams and ice lollies.

They ate them while sunning themselves or sitting in the shade under one of our many garden umbrellas.

Perfect!

Enjoying the garden