

Flower arranging at Hengist Field Care Home

On Thursday 13 February, a few of our lovely residents here at Hengist Field Care Home chose to come into the activities room to take part in flower arranging. Our residents chose what flowers they wanted to use and made some lovely baskets to take back to their rooms.

It was great fun, and we're sure you'll agree, the flowers look fab!

