

Hengist Field Care Home hosts singer Liam Joseph

What a fantastic afternoon we had on Monday 24 October when we welcomed singer Liam Joseph to Hengist Field Care Home for the first time.

Liam sang a wonderful selection of classics from Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin to songs from musicals 'My Fair Lady', 'Oliver Twist' and many more!

He had everyone dancing in their chairs, waving their arms, tapping their feet and singing along.

Liam was great at interacting with our residents and made a good job of remembering the names of everyone too!

Our ladies and gents all agreed that he had a fantastic voice and thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon, saying that they'd definitely like Liam to come back and sing for us again.

Thank you for a fantastic afternoon Liam, see you soon!
