

Hengist Field Care Home residents enjoy painting morning

On Thursday 15 October two of our Hengist Field Care Home residents, Vera and Daphne, enjoyed rolling up their sleeves to get painting!

They used a combination of potato prints and freehand painting to make a lovely picture together.

Well done ladies!