

Hengist Field Care Home residents love a good lolly

Our ladies and gents at Hengist Field Care Home have been enjoying more cooling lollies this week, as the sun has been so wonderful.

Blackcurrant ices and watermelon lollies have been top of the list this time – delicious!

A bit of sunshine is so good for the spirit and it has been wonderful to see our residents relaxing and socialising in our garden.

