

Making table decorations at Hengist Field Care Home

Some of our lovely ladies here at Hengist Field Care Home have helped paint large tins in vibrant colours, ready to have some pretty plants potted in them, for table decorations for our 'Woodstock' event here on Friday.

They have done a marvellous job and the finished decorations look brilliant.

Well done ladies – we can wait to see them on display at our party!