

Remembrance Day service at Hengist Field Care Home

On Monday 11 November we welcomed Chaplin Pat Tatchell to Hengist Field Care Home to give our residents a special service for Remembrance Day.

Pat encouraged our residents to sing some hymns and then read some prayers and talked about Remembrance Day and what it means, before going around to our residents for photographs and to have a little chat.

Our residents really enjoyed being together sharing this special day.

