

Scott Elvis entertains Hengist Field Care Home residents

We had a fantastic afternoon on Thursday 21 September when we invited Scott Elvis to come and sing for our residents at Hengist Field Care Home – back by popular demand!

He wore his all-in-one white jumpsuit (requested by our residents!) and sang a great selection of Elvis songs, performing them superbly as always, including a couple of requests.

We all enjoyed an absolutely brilliant afternoon – see you soon Scott!
