

Tennis with strawberries at Hengist Field Care Home

Despite Wimbledon being cancelled this year, there is still lots of television coverage of previous championships to enjoy on television, so we've been making the most of it at Hengist Field Care Home.

Over the weekend, our residents thoroughly enjoyed watching historic coverage of matches, together with some strawberries and cream.

Game, set. . . .delicious!

Enjoying a taste of summer!